

CSA Member Agreement

Community Supported Agriculture is an arrangement between people and a farm. The farmer agrees to plan, plant, and harvest a bountiful share for each shareholder each week during the 28 week season. Shareholders agree to pay for their shares in advance of the season. Shareholders are encouraged to make the farm “theirs” and from our perspective, this is the perfect way to share our farm. The system of shared fate described above also carries the harsher realities of farming such as drought, crop failure, insect invasion etc... I have many years of growing and CSA experience and employs strategies that work within a holistic system to ensure an excellent harvest.

All of our produce is Certified Organic, I go above and beyond to steward the land. My promise is to be 100% transparent on all of our growing and management practices. I will communicate what the harvest coming up will look like, as well as the state of the farm. I will always be happy to listen to you and receive feedback about what we are doing and how we can do it better. We welcome all people on the farm as equals.

As a CSA is a season-long commitment from both the person and the farmer, refunds are on a case by case basis. If you are unhappy in any way with your CSA share, the farm, or the farmer please let us know and we will work towards a mutually agreeable arrangement.

The Quarter Share is $200 and is allowed seven weeks of our 28 week season to pick up. The Half Share receives 14 weeks of the season to pick up. The Summer share receives the “prime” 20 weeks in the middle of the season. Full shares receive all 28 weeks of produce. Choice shares come 22 weeks and have a choice of half of the items available.

I am offering a payment plan this season to make the CSA easier to join and less of a financial shock. A $100 deposit (non refundable), followed by four equal monthly payments from January through April 2017. The Quarter Share is excluded from the payment plan.

Payments accepted are checks in the mail, cash in person at the farm, or credit cards through our Square Marketplace. Please send a signed copy of this agreement via email or along with a physical payment.

By signing, I agree to everything stated in this CSA membership agreement
